

About the Authors

George S. Babbes is professor of Marketing & Strategy at Azusa Pacific University. Formerly he was on the faculty of the S. C. Johnson Graduate School of Management at Cornell University, where he created an acclaimed full-time one-semester MBA course experience called “Immersion in Strategic Brand Management.” Before entering academia, Dr. Babbes held senior staff and management positions with leading multinational companies, including Apple Computer, Arthur Andersen, Gillette, and Procter & Gamble. He has also served on several nonprofit boards over the past twenty-five years, including the United Way of Greater Cincinnati and Teen Mania Ministries.

Dr. Babbes earned his MBA at the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, his MS and PhD from the Haas School of Business, University of California, Berkeley, and completed his church history and theology training at Fuller Theological Seminary. Dr. Babbes’s award-winning research on consumer and executive decision making has been presented at leading academic conferences and business schools in Asia, Europe, and North America. He is chairman of Christian Praxis Resources, a 501(c)(3) organization that develops tools, such as stratmin.org, to facilitate strategy formulation and implementation. He can be reached at gbabbes@apu.edu. He lives in Claremont, California.

Michael Zigarelli is the dean of the Regent University School of Business. His research in the fields of management, practical theology, law, and ethics has appeared in a number of scholarly journals and magazines. He is the author of several books, including Cultivating Christian Character; Ordinary People, Extraordinary Leaders; Faith at Work; and Management by Proverbs. His work is read worldwide, having been translated into Chinese, Spanish, Korean, Portuguese, Swahili, Norwegian, Romanian, and Arabic.

Dr. Zigarelli is the founding editor of Regent Business Review, an online magazine with subscribers in seventy-four countries, and the founder of Epiphany Resources, LLC, a consulting company that assesses spiritual health for churches and Christian schools. He lives in Virginia with his wife ,Tara, and their four children.

Please visit MinistersMBA.com, created by Dr. Babbes and Dr. Zigarelli, for supplemental tools and continuing education resources, as well as teaching materials for using The Minister's MBA as a training resource. The teaching materials include class outlines, case studies, and in-class exercises.

